The History of Our Chautauqua.

The history of our Chautauqua dates back to August 20, 1909, when pursuant to call many citizens met at the big tent on Chautauqua grounds, where The Redpath Chautauqua was in progress. Temporary officers were elected and later on, August 24, 1909, at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, a permanent organization was effected by the election of a full Board of Directors, with S. D. Thompson as President and F. M. Filson, Secretary. A constitution and by-laws were adopted which were in full force and effect until August 15, 1912, when a re-organization was effected and steps taken to incorporate the Association, so that business could be conducted more safely, as the splendid success of the undertaking seemed a full guarantee of its permanency as an institution.

Each year has added zest and zeal to our Chautauqua and all our citizens act in complete accord in making it the best in Northwest Missouri.

The receipts for the five years, beginning in 1910, have been about the same, as following table will show:

1910	$4,673.05
1911	5,385.30
1912	4,999.65
1913	4,924.26
1914	5.003.61

The management has adhered to the true Chautauqua idea, endeavoring to furnish programs of high moral tone. The morning hours are devoted to religious exercises, the afternoons to popular lectures, and the evenings to entertainment of various kinds, usually of a musical character interspersed with Dramas, Readings and other light specialties.

The financial management has been careful and conservative and only in the year 1910 did we meet with a loss and that but slight, as we spent that year $553.23 for permanent improvements, which with a loss of $156.53, caused an assessment of $5.00 per member, which was promptly and cheerfully paid, and was refunded out of the profits of 1911 and 1912 business.

We are now a regularly chartered institution, incorporated under State Law, and our investments are as follows:

Permanent improvements in 1911, buildings
and water supply	$555.23
Lands, 6 six fine lots bought in 1913,	760.00
Plumbing, done in 1914,	468.11
Appropriated for dining hall in 1915,	450.00
Appropriated for addition to office, in 1915,	50.00

Total expended, permanent improvements, $2,261.34 A list of the stockholders and its personnel includes many of our leading citizens, who have ungrudgingly given their support through the past years, two of which were lean ones from a crop standpoint but successful ones for our enterprise.

Why do we succeed? Because we are united in sentimentand our Board and committees devote their time timent and our Board and committees devote their time except the enjoyment they get.

We start this year with enough cash on hand to construct the dining hall and an addition to the office, leaving a small cash balance, and with a carefully selected program that should appeal to the good taste of our people, the present year should be the best we have ever had. So we earnestly invite your hearty co-operation for this 1915 Chautauqua.

All Tents Guaranteed Not to Leak.

The only way to realy and truly get the full benefit of the Chautauqua Assembly is to rent a tent and camp on the grounds. It is the thing to do whether you live in Cameron or elsewhere. We have an elegant camping site for more than 100 tents in shady places and our tents, secured from Baker-Lockwood, are guaranteed to be waterproof, so you will be comfortable, rain or shine. You will have free access to the telephones at headquarters and can order groceries and supplies and have them delivered free at your tent. In other words, you will have all the conveniences of the home and all the pleasures of camp life combined. Write or phone your orders for a tent, cots, chairs, blankets, pillows, etc., at once, and secure a good location. All lodges and churches will have large headquarter tents around the big tent where all will be welcome to loaf, rest and visit and enjoy the intermission between programs. Come and join our Big Chautauqua family.

Instructions for Conveyances and Automobiles.

Automobiles will use Cherry and Pine Streets in going and coming from the grounds and refrain from using Chestnut Street. All conveyances except automobiles and motorcycles, and all hacks and carriages are requested to use Chestnut Street and Seminary Avenue in coming and going from the grounds and refrain from using Pine and Cherry Streets.

These regulations are made to prevent accidents and congestion and delay, and we feel sure they will be cheerfully obeyed.

Season Ticket Conditions.

Season tickets are non-transferable and are good for admittance only when presented by the person to whom issued. If presented at the gates by any other person, such tickets will be taken up and forfeited and no other tickets issued in lieu thereof. Read the regulations carefully and do not take up time arguing with the gate keepers. They don't make the Rules.

Show Your Tickets.

Gate keepers have positive orders from the management to inspect every season ticket every time it is presented for admission. This ruling is not made on your account, but experience of past years has shown it to be necessary for the protection of the Association. Surely no reasonable person will object.

Sanitary Toilets.

The management of the Chautauqua Association is continually striving to improve the grounds and add anything which will contribute to the comfort of the public. Their latest acquisition to that end is the installation of city water and sanitary toilets. This addition to the grounds will no doubt be appreciated by the Chautauqua patrons.

Mrs. M. S. Boal

Mrs. M. S. Boal of Chicago, has a new method of presenting Domestic Science attractively to Chautauqua audiences. Instead of doing the work herself she brings with her a negro chef, who is himself an expert in this useful art. While the chef does the work Mrs. Boal lectures effectively and thus demonstrates very clearly just what her audiences wish to know. Her work is based on the fundamental principles of good cookery and her lectures will be of very great value to all our people.

Henry A. Adrain Saturday, July 31

All have heard of Luther Burbank, "The Plant Wizard." Thousands all over the country have desired to see Mr. Burbank and the wonderful work he has accomplished.

Mr. Henry A. Adrain, a co-laborer with Burbank, describes the work more brilliantly perhaps than Mr. Burbank himself could do. His lecture is a demonstrated one and made more intensely interesting by the use of many rare specimens of new creations of plant life direct from the Burbank gardens.

Luther Burbank has proven himself one of the world's greatest benefactors, as he has by rare skill produced useful plants from noxious ones and is thus solving one great problem—that of improving the quality and increasing the quantity of wholesome food.

Don't fail to hear Adrain in this great lecture, "With Burbank In Wonderland."

The L. A. C. Orchestra is without doubt one of the most popular organizations of its kind appearing on the chautauqua platform. Composed of eight talented and comely maidens each and every one an artist on the instrument which she plays, besides vocal solos and quartets.

The Lima (Ohio) Republican-Gazette says of them: "Their appearance won the audience before the program had begun. The orchestra was originally organized for the pleasure of the young women of whom it is composed. After months of study under Leon Marx, of the Theodore Thomas Orchestra, they resolved to accept engagements. Individually, they are finished musicians. Their entertainment was composed of orchestra selections, vocal quartets, duets and solos and readings."

Miss Mae Parker Monday, Aug. 2

One of the delightful features of the 1915 Chautauqua will be the appearance of Miss Mae Parker, the well known Missouri Reader. She has attracted wide attention by her work in the Chautauqua and Lyceum world. The Reader possesses a voice of remarkable strength and richness and with a capacity for study and work have added a charming personality and have made it possible for her to supply in the fullest measure the Chautauqua audiences demands. For this season Miss Parker presents "Molly Make Believe."

Cameron is to be congratulated upon being so fortunate as to secure so able a reader during our Chautauqua. Miss Parker is so well known that any additional eulogy from us or extensive comment from others is unnecessary.

"Too much cannot be said in praise of Miss Parker's work in both reading and music. She has a well modulated voice, well trained, and always under control. Its tone qualities are pure and rich in its many shades of inflections."—Hopkins (Mo.) Journal.

"Miss Parker is a delightfully pleasing reader, and contralto soloist, and was heartily applauded by her audience. She was pronounced by many of her hearers as being one of the best readers ever heard in Gallatin."—Gallatin (Mo.) Democrat.

You have never heard a popular lecture we feel safe in saying, that pleased you more than will "Father Arbaham and Brother Bill," which Hon. W. I. Nolan will deliver Tuesday, August 3. This lecture seems to embody all the praisworthy teaching and humorous philosophy which men and women have gathered from the time of Eve's husband to "Bill" the average man of today. It is a humorous retrospective estimate and analysis of human experience. Nolan the true blue American of Irish ancestry is especially happy in a lecture of this kind into which his native wit and homely philosophy are so cleverly interwoven. He is really a phenominal success as an impersonator and story teller, and in fact devoted some years to platform work of that kind, gradually merging it into his inimitable lectures. No more clever interperter of Scandinavian dialect humor, however, has been heard on the platform.

Tuesday, Aug. 3

The Pierces Dramatic Artists. That should be enough said to fill the tent to overflowing, as the Pierces have been on the Chautauqua platform over twelve years, delighting audiences wherever they have gone.

They successfully blend humor and pathos with an undercurrent of the moral uplift needed in the tragedies and comedies of daily life. So that each audience goes home with the satisfaction of having received something more than mere entertainment.

Chancellor Geo. H. Bradford Wednesday, Aug. 4

For years Chancellor Bradford has been prominent as a pulpit orator and in constant demand at great gatherings of educators and churchmen. His personality is dignified, but charming and his lectures are masterpieces of oratorical worth and convincing argument. He has taken advanced ground regarding the demands of the times for industrial education and in fact produces startling facts to show the imperative demand of the times for radical changes. His latest address analyzes world wide conditions incident to and resultant from the great war, and is pronounced one of the ablest and timeliest utterances of the past year.

College Girls Wednesday, Aug. 4

The program committee availed itself of the first opportunity for securing Walter Eccles and the College Girls. This company is the pioneer of its class and for nine years Mr. Eccles and his quartet of young ladies and their musical director, making a party of six, has been making transcontinental tours, and everywhere given a most unusual welcome. Mr. Eccles as a humorist, impersonator and musical, entertainer is alone fully equal to the task of entertaining great audiences, but with the assistance of tive others, a musical entertainment most varied, novel and clever is produced. They introduce many original compositions written especially for them, and also many operatic scenes and selections, appearing in a variety of charming costumes. Through the entire entertainment there runs a spirit of clean merriment, well mixed with music of genuine worth. A treat is in store when this company appears.

Cap's Orchestra Thursday, Aug. 5

Caps Orchestra is a new departure in musical entertainment, and their playing has a snap and style which is original and entirely different from the ordinary musical attraction. There are no dull moments during the program—something different each number and no waits between numbers. Each of the members of the organization plays more than one instrument, and they change instruments during the rendition of numbers, using the instrumentation best suited to the different movements of the selection.

Every number is improved by some bright, new idea, either in the manner of playing or in the combination of instruments used. The audience is kept in expectancy as to the nature of the next "stunt." The quality of the music is not sacrificed for these "stunts" however, and favorite classical numbers such as "Il Trovatore," "Tannhauser," "Faust," "Bohemian Girl," "Tales of Hoffman," and others, take on a new and added interest, from the unique solo and ensemble work of these musicians. This organization will be a delightful and refreshing change from the usual orchestra program.

The members of the Orchestra are all clean-cut, refined American gentlemen, as well as able, versatile musicians. They have been playing together continuously for more than seven years. They are full of life and vigor, as only Americans can be, and they show this in the bright, happy, "snappy" manner in which they play, and in the "go" given to the music. This is contagious and they readily have their audience in a like happy frame of mind. This Company has traveled extensively and they have pleased wherever they have appeared.

Hon. William Murray Friday, Aug. 6

Congressman Murray, whose constituency of Oklahoma in their lovable, free and easy manner, affectionately named "Alfalfa Bill" speaks on Friday, August 6th, his subject being "The Philosophy of the Plow." You must hear him for he's worth while. This lecture includes much of a personal narrative of entrancing interest. Murray arose from one of the humblest of frontier families and became a lawyer of national prominence and one of the chief builders of the State of Oklahoma.

He is the owner of a splendid plantation, with its extensive cotton and alfalfa fields, and his utterances along agricultural lines are authoritative. His purposeful address, however, exalts the homely virtues, discloses the quagmires of politics and in his own peculiar manner exhorts us to higher living. His voice is big and resonant, his ever present humor broad and infectious. When he speaks the gallery of the House of Representatives is filled, and so will be our Chautauqua grounds when "Alfalfa Bill" Murray comes.

Hampton Court Singers Friday, Aug. 6

This unique Company of fine artists fills a new place on the chautauqua platform, presenting a new type of program in that it will contain few if any operatic selections. Unlike any other singing party it stands between the operatic quartet and the standard concert company.

The entertainment will be distinctive and novel, especially costumed and arranged with appropriate action. The use of the old English motion songs introduced by readings will be a new and attractive feature.

Chas. R. Taggart Saturday, Aug. 7

We are pleased to announce Charles R. Taggert, "The Man From Vermont," for Saturday, August 7. As a purveyor to the great American Lyceum and Chautauqua public, no man enjoys a finer vogue or has had more return calls. Mr. Taggart is everywhere a prime favorite. Personally he embodies all of the qualities Chautauquans favor so strongly. He is always a gentleman of refinement and genial culture whose cleverness as an entertainer is never forgotten. He can make an audience laugh without losing its self-respect, nor its respect for him. He is an exceptionally clever violinist, using the instrument in a series of humorous sketches and imitations. He plays the piano too, and he uses his powers as a ventriloquist in a new and most effective and novel maner.

Altogether we promise a "big night" when Taggart comes and urge that no one miss hearing this genial Vermonter, this delightful "Yankee" entertainer.

Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher Sunday, Aug. 8

On Sunday, August 8, we are to hear Dr. James Whitcomb Brougher, of Los Angeles on "What's Under Your Hat," "Home, Sweet Home, or How to be Happy, Though Married," and "The Speckled Bird, or Does Religion Need Reforming."

Dr. Brougher is one of the newer accessions to the Chautauqua platform, but his success is nothing short of marvelous. Many Chautauquas put him above Sam Jones in virility of speech, cleverness of wit, accurate interpretation of human fads and foibles and his vigorous and scathing arraignment of all kinds of folly.

Dr. Brougher is the successor of the famous Bob Burdette as pastor of the Baptist Temple, Los Angeles. Burdette, who reigned supreme for many years as America's most beloved humorist, was a great admirer of Brougher and the two men were very closely united in a beautiful friendship. When the doors of Brougher's Temple in Los Angeles are opened on Sunday, the thousands who stand waiting in the streets crowd in, filling every nook and cranny. Again, the doors are closed to avoid crowds and danger from panic. The audiences who gather are the largest which gather in America for church services

Brougher's speech at Chautauqua, New York, last summer, was voted the greatest of the season.

Ye Olde Folks Choir Sunday, Aug. 8

In announcing Ye Olde Folks Choir Concert Company for Sunday, August 8th, we feel confident we are offering programs of rare excellence with the added value of pleasing novelty This Company of five comprises a mixed quartet and an accompaniest, which has proven its quality by three years of almost continuous concerting in the east. The accompaniest, Miss Garland, is also a reader of real distinction, and a most charming young woman. Some years ago after graduation with highest honors at Mr. Leland Powers' famous school of the spoken word in Boston. Miss Garland took rank at once with the cleverest entertainers in New England and each year has seen a marked increase in her popularity. The programs of the Company includes three distinct features, the first being their ensemble singing, in which they are unsurpassed. Moreover they bring a repertoire entirely new to the Chautauquas. The portions of their programs devoted to "Ye Olde Folks" is done in the costumes of the Colonial period and the music presented is largely humorous; nevertheless, there is a distinct charm to those songs of a century and a half ago. The third feature includes scenes from Grand and Comic opera in costume and these are particularly interesting. The members of the Company are all soloists of recognized merit and we look forward to their coming with much pleasure.
